

Student Academic Conduct Policy

APPROVED: May 11, 2018

Policy effective for alleged misconduct occurring after August 15, 2018

OVERVIEW

As a community of students and scholars, the University strives to maintain the highest standards of academic integrity. All members of the community are expected to exhibit honesty and integrity in their academic work. This responsibility can be met only through earnest and conscientious effort. As a result, the University requires in order to replace members or supplement the UAIRB).

2. Academic Integrity Review Panel (AIRP)

In cases of academic misconduct that warrant a panel review, an Academic Integrity Review Panel will be constituted. These panels will be comprised of five (5) faculty members and two (2) student members. In cases involving graduate students, faculty panelists should be graduate faculty and student panelists should be graduate students. In cases involving undergraduate students, the student panelists should be undergraduates.

a. Homecollege cases

When misconduct is alleged to have occurred with a majority of faculty panelists and both student panelists should be from that college.

b. Crosscollege cases

When misconduct is alleged to have occurred in a college other than the college a majority of faculty panelists should be from the college in which the infraction occurred. A minority of faculty panelists and both student panelists should be from the college.

3. Panel Authority

Panel may prescribe penalties, sustain penalties, reduce penalties (including reduction to no penalty), or dismiss charges, as appropriate to the case. In subsequent offense cases, as well as those involving alleged academic misconduct beyond the scope of a specific class and/or instructor, the panel may prescribe dismissal from a program, college, or the University. In first-offense cases limited to a specific class and/or instructor, however, a panel should not typically increase the severity of the previously prescribed penalty.
