

STUDENT RESEARCH PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT

I, _____ ("STUDENT"), acknowledge and agree that the University of South Alabama ("USA") has policies relating to various forms of intellectual property/tangible research materials that I may develop, discover, or produce. The extent I participate in the following types of research (a) in the Course of Employment or Affiliation with the University, or (b) in the conduct of research in University laboratories as part of a postbaccalaureate or postdoctoral degree or degree program, or (c) resulting from work directly related to the student's employment or research responsibilities at the University, or (d) from work performed under a grant or other sponsorship, or faculty directed research or work resulting intellectual property/tangible research materials shall be the property of the University

Intellectual property and tangible research materials are defined as (a) inventions, discoveries, know-how, research data, research methods, and/or protocols ("Intellectual Property"); and (b) laboratory notebooks, chemical compounds, biological materials